Thirst for God: Unlocking the Power of Matthew 5

By: Miguel Valdivia

The human heart is incurably religious. Whether we choose to seek God or not, our need of Him will always inhabit the deep recesses of our soul. God not only encourages this journey; He also helps us understand the direction it should take, and the power available through Him to enable our quest. Matthew 5, and its list of blessings, is more than a description of God's followers; it is also a prescription for our spiritual development. Let this volume guide you in the discovery of God's intentions for your life.

Gain the tools necessary to build a life-giving legacy of faith and family that has a lasting impact on your entire sphere of influence for generations.

Holy matrimony—is it a sacred covenant until death parts you or just what comes after a fairy-tale romance with butterflies, glittering couture, and overpriced cake? Could it be, should it be, both? If marriage is on your mind because you're dating someone special, engaged, or you've just watched too many cheesy romance movies on cable, Preparing for your Marriage will help ensure your future marriage will be the kind of relationship that endures the test of time and honors God.
