Welcome To Stoneham Memorial Church

Organ Prelude: Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750): "Lord, God Father in Eternity" BWV 669

Organ Postlude: Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) "Lord, God, Holy Spirit" BWV 671

These choral preludes are composed in Renaissance vocal style, each dedicated to one of the persons of the Trinity. In Kyrie, Gott Vater in Ewigkeit ("Lord, God Father in Eternity"), BWV 669, the chorale appears as an unadorned cantus firmus in the soprano against a web of imitation derived from the chant melody. In Christe, aller Welt Trost ("Christ, Consolation of the World"), BWV 670, the melody moves to the tenor, with sweet-sounding consonant counterpoint to reflect the gentle compassion of Christ, God among us. We will hear this piece next week. In Kyrie, Gott heiliger Geist ("Lord, God, Holy Spirit"), BWV 671, the tune appears in the pedal against a four-part motet in the manuals, all played, according to Bach's instructions, "with the full organ."

Listen for the end section of the chorale dominated by a sudden change in harmonies, where the text phrase reads "that at the final end we may depart joyfully out of this misery." The harmonies, using the motif of 'pain' are illustrating Romans 8:26 "In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us through wordless groans".
