

Stoneham Memorial Seventh-day Adventist Church

29 Maple St. Stoneham, MA 02180

Our Motto: To live and share the truth about God and His Kingdom.

By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in holy fear built an ark to save his family.

By his faith he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that is in keeping with faith.

Hebrews 11:7

Our Mission Statement: We are committed to sharing the truth about God with the world. Believing that everything we do changes the world, we commit to demonstrate God's love and truth to each person He brings into our lives. Through His power and guidance we will choose to act with compassion, creativity and cooperation.

Organ Prelude: J. S. Bach (1685-1750): Organ Chorales BWV 672-674

Organ Postlude: J. S. Bach (1685-1750): Organ Chorale BWV 680

The prelude consists of three pieces, which are smaller counterparts to the great organ chorales with the same titles are composed around the long melodies of a 'trope': a standard hymn with extra texts. Each piece is devoted to one facet of the Trinity, whereby Bach gives a symbolic place to the cantus firmus (the existing melody): first to God the Father, then to God the Son, and finally to God the Holy Ghost.

The Chorale on "We Believe in One God" is both exuberant and triumphal. Bach ignored the long chorale melody for the larger part. Luther's melody first line, to which the words 'we believe in one God' are sung, were more than enough for him. He formed it into a jubilant theme, in which a buoyant downward leap generates a festive string of semiquavers. The material forms the basis for a spirited fugue that assures the listener that only one thing matters: faith.
