Welcome To Stoneham Memorial Church

Organ Prelude: Johann Sebastian Bach: "Our Father who Art in Heaven" BWV 682
Organ Postlude: Johann Sebastian Bach: Fugue in C Major BWV 545 for organ

In this setting of the 'Lord's Prayer' the two melodic voices and bass part actually create the form of a trio sonata. The original song melody is highly embellished. Here the music emphasizes the concepts of suffering, guilt, patience and obedience. This piece has long been considered the most complex of Bach's chorale preludes, difficult at the levels of both understanding and performance.

In the C Major Fugue, Bach spins a typically expressive and majestic affect from a subject marked by melodic simplicity. The two final entries sound festive and inspiring, leading to one of Bach's most satisfying endings.
