

Stoneham Memorial Seventh-day Adventist Church

29 Maple St. Stoneham, MA 02180

Our Motto: To live and share the truth about God and His Kingdom.

The grass withers
and the flowers fall,
but the word of our God
endures forever.

Isaiah 40:8

Our Mission Statement: We are committed to sharing the truth about God with the world. Believing that everything we do changes the world, we commit to demonstrate God's love and truth to each person He brings into our lives. Through His power and guidance we will choose to act with compassion, creativity and cooperation.

Organ Prelude: J. S. Bach (1685-1750): 'These are the ten holy commandments' BWV 677

Organ Postlude: J. S. Bach (1685-1750): Fugue in C Minor, BWV 537

Choral prelude BWV 677 belongs to a group of chorales set by Bach on texts by Luther. Here he sets the tune in canon on a separate manual. This has particular significance for a hymn about the ten commandments, since the word "canon" literally means "rule" or "law." The second canonic voice follows the first by a strict rule of counterpoint. There is a reference to the number ten in the first measure, where each of the three voices forms the interval of a tenth with the other two.

With the C-Minor fugue, Bach takes a lyrical form and uses it as a vessel for contrapuntal development with two subjects, A and B. The subjects of the A and B sections are never combined; Bach focuses instead on the contrasting nature of the two themes and their differing contrapuntal treatment. Perhaps nowhere is his writing more concise, direct, and intense than in this piece.
