community would like to express its gratitude to sister Kathy Curtis for leading our corn roast last Tuesday. Her exceptional dedication and hard work set a wonderful example for everyone, and we are so thankful for the way she served our students and parents. Her efforts perfectly reflect the counsel of Ellen G. White: "Teachers, work for your students; work for their parents. Work with the ambition to do them good. This is the spirit of heaven. This is to be like Christ" (CTPS, page 248).

Produce fruit in keeping with repentance. And do not think you can say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham.
